Information and Instructions

Pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. §3-301 through §3-303, any proposed structure within the land or water area that under lays the Tekamah, Nebraska (KTQE) Airport Hazard Zones that potentially poses a hazard to safe flight operations shall require a permit issued by the Tekamah, Nebraska Joint Airport Zoning Board prior to said construction project being proposed to the respective county or city zoning board for review, or prior to permit for said construction being applied for from the respective city or county permit office.

Tekamah Airport Hazard Zones include Approach Zones, Close Approach Zones, Operation Zone, Transition Zone, 3-Mile Turning Zone, and Close Turning Zones. (See included Plan 005.02 and Airport Zoning Map.)

It shall be the responsibility of the zoning and permit office of each respective political subdivision to refer persons to the Joint Zoning Board for permits, and to provide said persons with this application.

Within 30 days of receiving this completed application, the Joint Zoning Board shall meet to review said proposed structure. Applicant shall have opportunity at such public meeting for further presentation of said proposed structure. After said meeting, Joint Zoning Board shall, within 30 days, issue or deny its permit regarding said proposed structure.

If said structure(s) requires multiple permits by the Tekamah Airport Zoning Regulations, a separate Application for Permit and fee shall be required for each one.

Application must be completed thoroughly, and must include some graphic depiction of proposed structure.

The fee for each permit application shall be determined according to the cost of the proposed construction project per individual structure, and shall be determined based on the current Tekamah, Nebraska (KTQE) Joint Airport Zoning Board Permit Fee Schedule. Each structure that is any part of an array or project shall require a separate permit application, and each application shall require said fee appropriate to that structure, and all fees so paid shall be deposited into the revenue funds of the political subdivision which regulates said zoned area; either the City of Tekamah, Burt County, NE, Washington County, NE, or Harrison County, IA.

All fees collected will become the revenue of the regulating political subdivision, and will not be refunded if a Permit or Conditional Use Permit is denied.
